Attorney General John Ashcroft
US Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20530

Dear Mr. Ashcroft:

I am writing to ask the Department of Justice to accept the Microsoft antitrust settlement. The suit by AOL that Microsoft has violated antitrust laws is outrageously beyond my reasonable imagination. Microsoft has done nothing wrong and both companies should work together as well as on a competitive bases to improve the benefit of end customers. It is absolutely bad idea for both companies and the government to spend their resources for nothing. A settlement is in place and the terms are fair, I would like to see the government accept it.

I believe the settlements by Microsoft are more than I could think of as a private company could endure. At the same time, the Justice Department should use its resources from tax dollars in more productive ways for the consumers than harassing Microsoft as a company.

Sincerely,

Seha Son
